>>Dove Fundraiser

Saturday, September 28 - 11 am to 4 pm
FREE Admission Day at the Museum and RiverFest

The East Coast duo of Janie Meneely and Rob van Sante brings a breath of sea air wherever they showcase their largely homespun folk music from the Chesapeake Bay and beyond. We are please to bring them back to RiverFest with their beautiful and stimulating singing in the closing set at 3 pm.

The FREE event kicks off at 11 am at Historic St. Mary's City with solo singer Don Kenefick, followed by local favorite David Norris at Noon. The Chesapeake Public Charter School Chorus will be onstage at 1 pm to perform their original songs about our Bay. Perennial RiverFest performers, Indian Summer,—this year they perform as a quartet—are always a delight to sing along and reminisce over old favorites and they will take the stage at 2 pm. Don't miss out on the legendary WADE-IN with Delegate Brian Crosby and Senator Jack Bailey at 1:45 pm. Also featured are waterfront activities, live raptors, touch tanks, ballon art, vendors with hand-made goods and exhibitors with a conservation message. Take home a FREE 40-page booklet outlining how you can help reduce runoff and restore our healthy waters. For more information call 301-904-2387 or visit www.SMRWA.org/riverfest.html
